WHOLESALE PRICES, COUNTRY PRODUCE.

For the week ending June 6, 1893.

BEANS AND PEAS.

Receipts for four days, 500 bales; pens, 500 lbs.

Imports—Beans, 113 bags; Domestic white beans have shown no change during the week.

Best marks of Marrow have held constant, and have been steady, but the market is up.

Medium and Peas in light stock and but few wanted, the trade being supplied largely with foreign which are so much cheaper.

Wholesale prices have taken up about 250 bales. Red Kidney for this week's steamers, mainly at a cost of $2.00 f. o. b.; feeling firm. A fair trade is passing in forced bacon export. Pea, and the market is holding a little on finest quality. Green peas have improved somewhat.
